Overview

To provide participants (people who are aspiring to be in a directorship or are currently in one) with an overall understanding of the role and responsibilities of a director.

To provide an insight into how to carry out the role effectively and to protect both the individual and the corporation, as far as practical from potential liabilities.

The Course will cover:

- How the board functions and board member’s roles
- An overview of statutory books
- How to run an effective board meeting
- Corporate variety
- The legal role of directors and their compliance
- Companies Act 2006
- A director’s guide to staying out of jail
- Basic statutory and criminal liability
- How a director should enforce health and safety
- Director and Officers liability insurance
